FRIENDS OF BOOKWALTER

According to the Seattle Times, Bookwalter Winery's Book Club is one the most celebrated wine clubs in Washington State. But for those who would like to experience all the benefits of Book Club membership without having to inventory the wine, we have created a unique "non-wine club"—Friends of Bookwalter (FOB).

FOB membership entitles you to all the benefits and discounts that our Book Club members enjoy without the obligation to receive the annual wine shipments. The one difference: although you will have access to some of our most exclusive wines, priority wine fulfillment remains with our Book Club Members before FOB members have access to these wines.

To join, simply pay the annual fee. It's that easy. Your member benefits & discounts begin immediately. You'll receive invitations to special events, exclusive tastings and member parties. You will also be automatically enrolled in our exclusive Book Club Rewards Program. And if at any time during your active FOB membership you choose to upgrade to one of our Book Club Editions, we'll credit your rewards account $50.
